Corporate Synergies Announces 2009 Spring Institute Schedule

Mid-Atlantic HR Forum "Navigating Through Chaotic Times"

-Over 300 Registrants Signed Up to Attend-

MT. LAUREL, NJ. – March 18, 2009 – Corporate Synergies Group (Corporate Synergies), a multi-state, full-service benefits consultant and brokerage firm, today announced a seminar agenda designed to assist human resource executives with specific strategies to handle these chaotic times. The seminars will be delivered in New York City and Philadelphia (see below).

The keynote speaker on May 5, 2009 is the Honorable Tommy G. Thompson, the former Health and Human Services Secretary, the four-term governor of Wisconsin and Chairman of AGA Medical Corporation. The keynote speaker on May 6th is Karen L. Kirkpatrick, National Sales Manager, Infinisource. Ms. Kirkpatrick is nationally known for being a foremost expert in COBRA as recently amended by the American Recovery and Reinvestment act of 2009 (ARRA), HIPAA, and other state and federal statutes that directly relate to employee benefits.

"Clients and prospects alike have applauded our past seminars and responding to their needs we continue to serve them with Corporate Synergies Spring Institutes, to provide HR Executives proven methods and strategies that relate specifically to today's economic trends," states Louis Daniels, Executive Vice President and Sales Leader of Corporate Synergies, "Attendees will hear from these keynote speakers as well as other thought-leading professionals practical solutions and cost-containment answers for HR Executives."

Seminar Schedule

On-site registration for the seminars is from 8:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. The seminar program begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 4:00 p.m. To make reservations and get details on specific seminar locations, call Colleen Tinney at 856-996-261, or go
